

GRAND JURORS BEGIN INQUIRY INTO ICE TRUST

President of Company Is Called as the First Witness.

OLER MAKES DENIALS.

Declares His Concern Is Doing the Best It Can to Serve Public.

OLER DON'T KNOW HOW HIGH PRICE OF ICE IS GOING.

Wesley M. Oler, President of the Ice Trust, was asked if the price of ice was to be increased again this season.

His ominous reply was: "I DON'T KNOW HOW HIGH IT IS GOING."

The Grand Jury, with members of revolution because of the long hours it will be asked to work each day, to-day

District Attorney Jerome, who has been resting most of the summer, appeared to take charge, with Assistant

Wesley M. Oler, President of the American Ice Company, which is the Trust, was the first witness.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

When Mr. Oler emerged, perspiring, he submitted to an interview.

That's a lie about the Ice Company offering ice for sale in Pennsylvania. The fact is we are trying to buy all the ice we can.

"GIANTS ACTED UNWISELY." GARRY HERRMAN, Chairman, of National Commission. CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 8.—Talking of the forfeiting of the New York Chicago game to the Chicago team in New York Tuesday by Empire Johnson, who was refused admittance to the Polo Grounds, August Herrman, President of the Cincinnati Club and Chairman of the National Baseball Commission, said today at the Laughery Club.

Polo Grounds Fight to Result in War of League Magnates. The awful mix-up at the Polo Grounds promises to result in a war between the National League magnates with John T. Brush, owner of the Giants, and Harry Pulliam as the central figures.

PULLIAM SAYS: "The New York-Chicago game scheduled for Aug. 7 stands on the League record as forfeited to Chicago by a score of 9 to 0, and said result has been tabulated and counted. I uphold the action of the umpires absolutely."

HOW THE GAME WAS PLAYED BY GIANTS AND CUBS. (Continued from First Page.) Steinfeld singled and Schutte scored.

Seventh Inning. Gilbert threw out Moran, Ruebisch rolled out to McGinnis. Single flew to Brown.

Eighth Inning. Strang threw out Shuckard, Shannon got Schutte's walk.

Ninth Inning. Wilkie pitched for New York. Steinfeld singled. Tinker dropped a bunt.

JUDGE AND JURY FREE MAN AND GIVE HIM $70. Othello Crezza Had Been Charged with Burglary, but Was Acquitted.

When Othello Crezza, a language teacher, was to-day found not guilty at his trial before Judge Rossinsky, in General Sessions, on a charge of burglary.

TWO NEW TRUSTEES FOR NEW YORK LIFE. Seth Milliken, a merchant, and John Field, of Jordan L. Mack & Co., both of this city, were elected trustees of the New York Life Insurance Company at a meeting of trustees to-day.

HAGGIN'S CHAUFFEUR HELD. Dan His Auto Without Having a License Tag. J. H. Haggin's chauffeur, Fred Robinson, was to-day held to Special Sessions for running a car with no license tag.

CHAUFFEUR LOSES LICENSE. Auto Driver for Wesley G. H. Milliken Barred in New Jersey. TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 8.—State Commissioner of Motor Vehicles J. B. H. Smith to-day revoked the license issued to Joseph Brady, chauffeur for Gerrish I. Milliken, a wealthy New Yorker.

There's a Reason for the Splendid Growth of BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY and FOR SALE. "Advt. in the World last week over same week of last year. . . Better results this year. . . Last year was good, but World Wants are GROWING."

BOY CRUSHED ON TOP OF ELEVATOR. To Save Walk Upstairs He Climbed on Cage and Turned On the Power. In endeavoring to run a freight elevator when he knew nothing, fourteen-year-old Arthur Milliken, an inmate of the Catholic Orphanage, was to-day crushed to death.

ELDER MRS. THAW AND WIFE CORDIAL. Mother Spends Night in Daughter-in-Law's Apartment and They Visit Tombs Together. Mrs. William Thaw shared only half an hour with her imprisoned son at the Tombs to-day. The intense heat soon drove her away.

STEADY NERVES POSTUM FOOD COFFEE. Fear No Hot Weather. "There's a Reason!"

SCHEME NETS FAKERS $6,000 ON GAS BILLS. One Man Arrested on Charge of Collecting Fraudulently. The arrest this afternoon of a young man who says he is Emil Marks, of No. 43 Bushwick avenue, Brooklyn, interests the Consolidated Gas Company, as its officers expect to find his confederate in their employ and thus uncover a team that has materially assisted in the collection of more than $6,000 on gas bills of which amount the company has not received one dollar.

BULLET KILLS WIFE PACKING UP FOR OUTING. Mrs. Ford Found Wounded in Bedroom While Preparing for Journey. Mrs. William G. Ford, wife of a prominent civil engineer of Brooklyn, was found lying on the floor of her bedroom to-day with a revolver bullet in her right eye. She died early this afternoon after two physicians had worked over her for three hours.

MUTUAL MUST GIVE NEW LIST OF POLICYHOLDERS. Justice Giegerich Grants Mandamus Against the Company's Officers. Justice Giegerich, of the Supreme Court, to-day granted the application of Mr. Untermeyer for a writ of mandamus directed to the Mutual Life Insurance Company, and requiring them to supply the policyholders' committee with all information, such as correct addresses and names of policyholders, and to file a corrected list with the State Insurance Department within ten days.

THE CONSTABLE GOT HIM, B'GOSH! "Tim" McCarthy, of Windsor Locks, Proved Right Sprightly. Robert Wolf, nineteen years old, but already married and wanted for deserting his eighteen-year-old wife, was brought back to Brooklyn to-day after some climbing in Connecticut that will become part of the legendary history of Hartford and Windsor Locks.

FOUGHT FOUR MEN WHILE HUSBY HID. Intruders Wanted Revenge on Smith and His Wife Protected Him. John Martin, twenty-two years old, a printer, of No. 418 West Twentieth street, and John Ward, twenty-five years old, an engineer, of No. 30 West Twenty-sixth street, were held in $100 bail each for trial by Magistrate Finelito to-day in Jefferson Market Court on a charge of burglary.

GO HOME AND TRY TO SQUARE THINGS. Charles Murphy, of No. 496 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, whose wife is away for a month in the country, and Mrs. May Young, of No. 121 North Eighth street, Brooklyn, whose husband is away for a month on the road, went to Coney Island for a pleasant time last night.

GOV. FOLK IN TRAIN WRECK. Missouri Executive Escapes Injury in Collision on Missouri Pacific. ARMOUR, Mo., Aug. 8.—Gov. Folk of Missouri, was a passenger on a Missouri Pacific train which collided with another passenger train here to-day, but he escaped injury.

CHAUFFEUR LOSES LICENSE. Auto Driver for Wesley G. H. Milliken Barred in New Jersey. TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 8.—State Commissioner of Motor Vehicles J. B. H. Smith to-day revoked the license issued to Joseph Brady, chauffeur for Gerrish I. Milliken, a wealthy New Yorker.

BOY CRUSHED ON TOP OF ELEVATOR. To Save Walk Upstairs He Climbed on Cage and Turned On the Power. In endeavoring to run a freight elevator when he knew nothing, fourteen-year-old Arthur Milliken, an inmate of the Catholic Orphanage, was to-day crushed to death.

ELDER MRS. THAW AND WIFE CORDIAL. Mother Spends Night in Daughter-in-Law's Apartment and They Visit Tombs Together. Mrs. William Thaw shared only half an hour with her imprisoned son at the Tombs to-day. The intense heat soon drove her away.

STEADY NERVES POSTUM FOOD COFFEE. Fear No Hot Weather. "There's a Reason!"

H.O'Neill & Co. The Final Clearance of Women's Summer Suits and Skirts. Still a good assortment to select from, and the greatest values this season for the woman who can be suited in style and size.

Another Great Offering of Sheer White Lawn Waists At 98c Each. Made to sell from $1.50 to $2.00. Every Size from 34 to 48. The fabrics are the sheerest kind of white lawns and no such waists have been offered by any house this season at the price quoted.

Sale of Parasols at 1.75 and 2.75 Each. Worth from 2.75 to 4.00. A large variety of Coaching Parasols, extra quality taffeta silks, in all the leading shades. Also White embroidered Linens. Values $4.00; sale price 2.75.

Great Price Reductions in Infants' and Children's Dept. Short Coats—Special. . . 1.98 2.25 2.98 3.49 4.98. Regular. . . 2.49 4.50 5.98 6.98 9.08.

Manufacturer's Sample Line of Neckwear and Bolero Jackets. 6,000 Pieces Chemisettes, Stocks and Collars—Original values ranging from 35c to $3.50 each.

M.J. Harris Opticians. Pimples, Blackheads, Blotchy Skin. W hat a world of illumination is expressed in these words: "If you are unfortunate as to have a pimply face, which is continually getting worse instead of better, call or write us for advice."

Aiterbury System Clothes THE FINAL REDUCTION IN PRICES. 3 STORES: 183 Broadway, 39 & 41 Cortlandt St., 117th St.

CLADY CANDY. PENNY A POUND PROFIT. CASH OR CREDIT. Call or write for Catalogue 44.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY FOR WOMAN'S ILLS IN THE WORLD. HELP WANTED—MALE.

NO GAME. But if he's lame—Strong for a game—And feels good in the morning. The baseball fan With sureness can Hop oars that bear this warning:

Yes, "Game to-day." "Not game," you say? On cynics' faithless altars! New Yorks are game, And all the same. They're very "sheerful winners!" WALTER A. BINGHAIR.

BOY CRUSHED ON TOP OF ELEVATOR. To Save Walk Upstairs He Climbed on Cage and Turned On the Power. In endeavoring to run a freight elevator when he knew nothing, fourteen-year-old Arthur Milliken, an inmate of the Catholic Orphanage, was to-day crushed to death.

CHAUFFEUR LOSES LICENSE. Auto Driver for Wesley G. H. Milliken Barred in New Jersey. TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 8.—State Commissioner of Motor Vehicles J. B. H. Smith to-day revoked the license issued to Joseph Brady, chauffeur for Gerrish I. Milliken, a wealthy New Yorker.

BOY CRUSHED ON TOP OF ELEVATOR. To Save Walk Upstairs He Climbed on Cage and Turned On the Power. In endeavoring to run a freight elevator when he knew nothing, fourteen-year-old Arthur Milliken, an inmate of the Catholic Orphanage, was to-day crushed to death.

ELDER MRS. THAW AND WIFE CORDIAL. Mother Spends Night in Daughter-in-Law's Apartment and They Visit Tombs Together. Mrs. William Thaw shared only half an hour with her imprisoned son at the Tombs to-day. The intense heat soon drove her away.

STEADY NERVES POSTUM FOOD COFFEE. Fear No Hot Weather. "There's a Reason!"